MARTHA'S MUSINGS . . .

School's out, summer's almost here, and it's time to kick back and enjoy June! But Sunrise has not slowed down for the summer – instead, we've gone into high gear. CASTLE began its six week summer program June 1. Our halls and classrooms are buzzing with the excited voices of children learning and playing. CASTLE is in session Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. until noon. Carol Viar heads up CASTLE. This year there is a totally new staff of teachers bringing energy and excitement.

On June 15, just after River Festival closes, Heartland Traveling Day Camp comes to Sunrise for the second year. This year we have partnered with First Presbyterian Church to host camp. We've increased the number of campers to 56! Campers come from many area churches – including Christ Cathedral and the Minneapolis and Delphos Presbyterian Churches. This year's registration was filled simply by word of mouth. We did not advertise outside either church.

Heartland Day Camp offers an excellent week of Bible study, fun and games, water play, arts and crafts, song, horses, and for the older youth – a campout under the stars! We often see our children glued to a screen playing endless video games. They sometimes don't play outdoors. They often are so involved in organized sports that they miss the fun of playing games and singing songs with a group of children. Camp will run from June 15-19. Camp runs from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. – except for Friday when children leave at 3:00 p.m.

Special thanks go out to the Nurture Committee and the Christian Education Committee. They've organized volunteers to provide counselors meals and to serve a snack to the camp each afternoon. It's going to be a busy month – but the entire church building will be in full use!

CASTLE and Heartland Traveling Day Camp are both wonderful opportunities for fellowship and education Sunrise offers to the children of Salina. Take time this month to stop by and enjoy the chatter and laughter of children filling our halls.

Love,
Martha

GOD'S KIDS FISHING TRIP

PRAYER NOTES

How Can I Pray?

A great way to pray is to look for God's presence in your life. More than 400 years ago St. Ignatius Loyola encouraged prayer-filled mindfulness by proposing what has been called the Daily Examen. The Examen is a technique of prayerful reflection on the events of the day in order to detect God's presence and to discern his direction for us. Try this version of St. Ignatius's prayer.

- 1. Become aware of God's presence. Look back on the events of the day in the company of the Holy Spirit. The day may seem confusing to you—a blur, a jumble, a muddle. Ask God to bring clarity and understanding.
- 2. Review the day with gratitude. Gratitude is the foundation of our relationship with God. Walk through your day in the presence of God and note its joys and delights. Focus on the day's gifts. Look at the work you did, the people you interacted with. What did you receive from these people? What did you give them? Pay attention to small things—the food you ate, the sights you saw, and other seemingly small pleasures. God is in the details.
- 3. Pay attention to your emotions. One of St. Ignatius's great insights was that we detect the presence of the Spirit of God in the movements of our emotions. Reflect on the feelings you experienced during the day. Boredom? Elation? Resentment? Compassion? Anger? Confidence? What is God saying through these feelings? God will most likely show you some ways that you fell short. Make note of these sins and faults. But look deeply for other implications. Does a feeling of frustration perhaps mean that God wants you consider a new direction in some area of your work? Are you concerned about a friend? Perhaps you should reach out to her in some way.
- 4. Choose one feature of the day and pray from it. Ask the Holy Spirit to direct you to something during the day that God thinks is particularly important. It may involve a feeling—positive or negative. It may be a significant encounter with another person or a vivid moment of pleasure or peace. Or it may be something that seems rather insignificant. Look at it. Pray about it. Allow the prayer to arise spontaneously from your heart—whether intercession, praise, repentance, or gratitude.
- 5. Look toward tomorrow. Ask God to give you light for tomorrow's challenges. Pay attention to the feelings that surface as you survey what's coming up. Are you doubtful? Cheerful? Apprehensive? Full of delighted anticipation? Allow these feelings to turn into prayer. Seek God's guidance. Ask him for help and understanding. Pray for hope. St. Ignatius encouraged people to talk to Jesus like a friend. End the Daily Examen with a conversation with Jesus. Ask forgiveness for your sins. Ask for his protection and help. Ask for his wisdom about the questions you have and the problems you face. Do all this in the spirit of gratitude. Your life is a gift, and it is adorned with gifts from God. End the Daily Examen with the Our Father.

CASA FOR CHILDREN

Every day, abused and neglected children in our community are taken from their homes and placed into temporary foster care because their parents cannot - or will not - take care of them.

Court Appointed Special Advocate volunteers work to help these children find safe, permanent homes where they can thrive. CASAs are ordinary people who do extraordinary things for some of our community's most vulnerable children.

Consider a rewarding, life changing volunteer opportunity by becoming a CASA volunteer.

For more information about the program and training beginning in June, please contact the CAPS office at 785-825-4493.

On behalf of our family, I want to thank you and your team for the superb job you did in putting together and in delivering my father's service.

JM

Thank you for the prayers and cards that I received from members of the Sunrise Church following the death of my mother, Gloria Tarter. My brothers, sisters and I were raised up in a small town in southeastern Kansas called Scammon. We went to the Presbyterian Church there. We were blessed that she was able to celebrate her last birthday in February when she turned 85. And now she can rest peaceably and be with our Father forever.

May God Bless you all,
Kathy Potts

LIKE CHILDREN? HELP NEEDED

Don't let that headline frighten you away! We would just like to find a volunteer to take care of Addie's Corner. Say, once a month or so, just straighten up the books/neaten it up.

It's such a nice little corner, we need to show that "Sunrise Pride" and keep it neat! Thank you in advance!!

ADDIE'S CORNER ADDITION

Title: Morning Has Broken

Author: Eleanor Farjeon
Illustrator: Tim Ladwig
Audience: ages 4 and up

The latest addition to Addie's Corner is "Morning Has Broken"

Summary: A beautifully illustrated rendition of the popular hymn, this book celebrates the beauty of God's creation through the eyes of a young boy and his grandfather who greet the day with smiles of wonder followed by an enjoyable walk in the park.

Literary elements at work in the story: People of all ages instantly recognize the memorable melody and powerful lyrics of this popular song as recorded by Cat Stevens in 1971. But few people know that the text (set to the traditional Scottish Gaelic tune "Bunesan") was originally written some 40 years earlier in 1931 by British poet Eleanor Farjeon. Taking inspiration from Psalm 118:24, Farjeon wrote "Morning Has Broken" for a hymnbook entitled Songs of Praise and later included it in one of her collections of poems entitled The Children's Bells.
